

BY-LAWS
OF
Northshore Ridge Homeowners' ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I

Name and Location of Meetings

The name of the corporation is Northshore Ridge Homeowners' Association, hereinafter referred to as the "Association." Meetings of the Owners and Directors may be held at such places within the State of Washington, County of King, as may be designated by the Board Directors.

ARTICLE II

Ownership

The Ownership of the Association shall consist of one class of Owners, being any individual who is the owner of a residential lot within the Northshore Ridge plat filed with the King County Auditor. At any meeting of the Ownership of the corporation each owner so present shall be entitled to one vote. If an Owner shall be in arrears in the payment of any assessment due the Owner's voting rights shall be suspended.

ARTICLE III

Management

The business and property of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV

Meeting of Owners

Section 1: Annual Meeting. The regular annual meeting of the Owners shall be held on the day and at the time specified each year commencing with the date that the Declarant shall no longer be able to act or appoint Board of Directors as provided for in the Declaration.

Section 2: Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Owners may be called at any time by the President or by the Board of Directors, or upon written request of the Owners who are entitled to vote ten percent (10%) of all of the votes of the Ownership.

Section 3: Notice of Meetings. Written notice of each meeting of the Owners shall be given by, or at the direction of, the secretary or person authorized to call the meeting, by mailing a copy of such notice, postage prepaid, at least thirty (30) days before such meeting to each Owner entitled to vote thereat, addressed to the Owner's address last appearing on the books for the Association, or supplied by such Owner to the Association for the purpose of notice. Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose of the meeting.

Section 4: Quorum. A Quorum shall be constituted by the presence at a meeting of Owners, or proxies entitled to cast, of fifteen percent (15%) or no less than three (3) people, of all the votes of the Ownership for any action. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting, the Owners entitled to vote thereat shall have the power to adjourn the meeting, from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting. If a quorum cannot be achieved after 30 days, a simple majority of the eligible votes of the Association may be used for any action. The provisions of RCW 64.38.025(3) shall apply to quorum and votes on budget matters.

Section 5: Proxies. At all meetings of Owners, each Owner may vote in person or by proxy. All proxies shall be in writing and filed with the secretary. Every proxy shall be revocable and shall automatically cease upon conveyance by the Owner of his Residential Lot.

Section 6: Owners. Every Owner of a Residential Lot shall be an Owner of the Association. Ownership shall be appurtenant to and may not be separated from ownership of any Residential Lot which is subject to assessment by the Association.

Section 7: Voting Rights. The Association shall have one class of voting Ownership comprised of all Owners who shall be entitled to one vote for each Residential Lot owned. When more than one person holds an interest in any Residential Lot, all such persons shall be Owners. The vote for such Residential Lot shall be exercised as they determine, but in no event shall more than one vote be cast with respect to any Residential Lot.

ARTICLE V

Board of Directors: Selection, Term of Office

Section 1: Number. The affairs of this Association shall be managed by a Board of one (1) Director, however, at such time as the permanent Board of Directors is elected pursuant to the Declaration then the number of Directors shall be at least three (3), but not more than five (5) Directors, and each Director must be an Owner of the Association.

Section 2: Term of Office. The first directors, which are elected by the lot owners, one director shall be elected for a term of two years, one director for a term of one year and if there are three or more directors elected, then an uneven number shall be elected for a term of one year and the balance for a period of two years. Thereafter, at each annual meeting of the Owners, they shall elect those directors whose terms have expired for a period of two years.

Section 3: Removal. Any Director may be removed from the Board, with or without cause, by a majority vote of all the Owners of the Association at a meeting called for that purpose. Any vacancy in the Board of Directors created or caused by any reason whatsoever, may be filled by an election held at a special meeting of the Owners of the Association called for that purpose or by the remaining Directors, if a special meeting of the Association does not occur within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of the vacancy.

Section 4: Compensation. No Director shall receive compensation for any service he may render to the Association. However, any Director may be reimbursed for his actual expenses incurred in the performance of his duties.

Section 5: Action Taken Without a Meeting. The Directors shall have the right to take any action in the absence of a meeting which they could take at a meeting by obtaining the written approval of all the Directors. Any action so approved shall have the same effect as though taken at a meeting of the Directors.

ARTICLE VI Nomination and Election of Directors

Section 1: Nomination. Nomination for election to the Board of Directors shall be made by a Nominating Committee. Nominations may also be made from the floor at the annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall consist of a Chairman, who shall be an Owner of the Board of Directors, and two or more Owners of the Association. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors prior to each annual meeting of the Owners, to serve from the close of such annual meeting until the close of the next annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall make as many nominations for election to the Board of Directors as it shall in its discretion determine, but not less than the number of vacancies that are to be filled.

Section 2: Initial Election of Directors by Owners. At such time as the Declarant period is ending according to the Declaration, a nomination form will be mailed to all current homeowners requesting nominations for the homeowner board. Once nominations are received, a ballot and other related documents, if applicable, will be sent to all Owners via regular mail. In the event that state law provides for official communication by electronic means, electronic communication may be substituted for communication by regular mail.

The initial homeowner board of directors can be elected via mail-in ballot, an in-person meeting or by proxy. Regardless of method of election, quorum is not required. Voting ballots shall be returned to such person or entity as may be designated no longer than two weeks from the date of official communication unless otherwise specified. Those persons receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected to the vacant director positions. They shall then constitute the initial elected board of directors until such time their term has expired.

Section 3: Election. At the election of Directors the Owners or their proxies may cast, in respect to each vacancy, as many votes as they are entitled to exercise. The persons receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected. Cumulative voting is not permitted.

ARTICLE VII Meetings of Directors

Section 1: Regular Meeting. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such time and place as the Board of Directors may fix. If any day fixed for a regular meeting shall be a legal holiday at the time where the meeting is to be held, the meeting shall instead be held at the same hour on the next succeeding business day. Notice of regular meetings of the Board of Directors need not be given except as otherwise required by statute or these Bylaws.

Section 2: Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held when called by the president of the Association, or by any one Directors, after not less than ten (10) days notice to each Director.

Section 3: Quorum. A majority of the number of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors present at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board.

Section 4: Waiver of Notice. Attendance of a Director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice for such meeting, except where a Director attends for the express purpose of objecting to this transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. A waiver of notice signed by the Directors whether before or after the time stated for the meeting shall be equivalent to the giving of notice.

ARTICLE VIII Powers and Duties of the Board of Directors

Section 1: Powers. The Board of Directors shall have power to:

- (a) exercise for the Association all powers, duties and authority vested in or delegated to this Association and not reserved to the Ownership by other provisions of these By-Laws, the Articles of Incorporation, or the Protective Covenants and Restrictions;
- (b) declare the office of a Owner of the Board of Directors to be vacant in the event such Owner shall be absent from three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Board of Directors;
- (c) employ a manager, an independent contractor, or such other employees as they deem necessary, and to prescribe their duties;
- (d) file legal action on behalf of the Association to enforce any covenants affecting the properties;
- (e) adopt and publish rules and regulations governing the use of the facilities and the personal conduct of the Owners and their guests thereon, and to establish penalties for the infraction thereof;
- (f) suspend the voting rights of a Owner during any period in which such Owner shall be in default in the payment of any assessment levied by the Association. Such rights may also be suspended after notice and hearing, for a period not to exceed 60 days for infraction of published rules and regulations.

Section 2: Duties. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to:

- (a) cause to be kept a complete record of all its acts and corporate affairs and to present a statement thereof to the Owners at the annual meeting of the Owners, or any special meeting which such meeting has been called by the Owners;
- (b) supervise all officers, agents and employees of this Association, and to see that their duties are properly performed;
- (c) as more fully provided in the Protective Covenants and Restrictions of Northshore Ridge Homeowners' Association, as amended, to:
 - (1) fix the amount of any assessments against a Residential Lot and to send a written notice of such assessment to every owner at least thirty (30) days in advance of such assessment.
 - (2) foreclose any liens against the property for which assessments are not paid within thirty (30) days after due date or to bring an action at law against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same.
- (d) procure and maintain at the discretion of the Board of Directors adequate hazard insurance on property owned by the Association;
- (e) cause all officers or employees having fiscal responsibilities to be bonded, as it may deem appropriate; and
- (f) cause the property held by the Association to be maintained in accordance with the provisions of the Protective Covenants and Restrictions.

ARTICLE IX Officers

Section 1: That the officers of the corporation shall be elected annually by the board of directors at a meeting scheduled for that purpose.

Section 2: President. The President of the Board of Directors shall supervise all activities of the corporation; execute all instruments in its behalf; preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the Ownership of the corporation; and perform such other duties usually inherent in such office.

Section 3: Vice-President. The Vice-President of the Board of Directors shall act for the President in his absence and perform such other acts as the President may direct.

Section 4: Secretary. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Board of Directors to keep all records of the Board of Directors and of the corporation and to perform such other acts as the President may direct.

Section 5: Treasurer. The Treasurer shall receive and be accountable for all funds belonging to the corporation; pay all obligations incurred by the corporation and maintain bank accounts in depositories designated by the Board of Directors; and render periodic financial reports.

Section 6: Resignation and Removal. Any Officer may be removed from office with or without cause by the Board. Any Officer may resign at any time giving written notice to the Board, the President or Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect on the date of receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Should an Officer resign their position, they are also resigning their Board of Director position in its entirety.

Section 7: Vacancies. A vacancy in any office may be filled with appointment for the term of the Officer he replaces.

Section 8: Multiple Offices. One person may hold multiple offices.

ARTICLE X Assessments

Section 1: Each Owner is deemed to covenant and agree to pay the Association:

1. An annual assessment or charge.
2. Special assessments for capital improvements.
3. Purposes of Assessment. The assessments shall be used exclusively for the purposes as set forth in the Covenants and Restrictions for Northshore Ridge.

Section 2: Annual Assessment. Within thirty (30) days after the adoption by the Board of Directors of any proposed regular or special budget of the Association, the Board shall set a date for a meeting of the owners to consider ratification of the budget not less than fourteen (14), nor more than sixty (60) days after mailing of the summary. Unless at that meeting the owners of a majority of the votes in the Association reject the budget, in person or by proxy, the budget is ratified, whether or not a quorum is present. In the event the proposed budget is rejected, or the required notice is not given, the periodic budget last ratified by the owners shall be continued until such time as the owners ratify a subsequent budget proposed by the Board of Directors.

Section 3: Special Assessments for Capital Improvements. In addition to the annual assessments authorized above, the Association may levy special assessments for capital improvements. Any such levy by the Association shall be for the purpose of defraying in whole or in part, the cost of any construction or reconstruction, or replacement of a described capital improvement upon the common areas as defined in the Covenants and Restrictions of Northshore Ridge, provided that any such assessment shall have the assent of 66% of the votes of all lot owners, written notice of which shall be sent to all Owners not less than thirty (30) days, nor more than sixty (60) days in advance of the meeting setting forth the purpose of the meeting.

Section 4: Uniform Rate. Both annual and special assessments shall be fixed at a uniform rate for all lots. In the event the annual assessment is increased or decreased as provided for in these Bylaws, then the new assessment rate shall begin on the first day of the year following the meeting at which the annual assessment rate was changed. The due date of any special assessment as provided herein shall be fixed by the resolution authorizing such assessment.

ARTICLE XI
Compensation

That neither the officers nor Owners of the board of directors shall receive compensation for their services, however, the Association may reimburse such director or officers for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred for and on behalf of the Association.

ARTICLE XII
Committees

The Board shall appoint other committees as deemed appropriate in carrying out its purposes. The Architectural Control Committee shall consist of Owners with appointment as set forth in the Declaration.

ARTICLE XIII
Books and Records

The books, records, and papers of the Association shall at all times, during reasonable business hours, be subject to inspection by any Owner. The Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Association shall be available for inspection by any Owner. Copies may be purchased at a reasonable price.

ARTICLE XIV
Contracts, Loans, Checks, and Deposits

Section 1: Contracts. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, or agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 2: Loans. No loans shall be contracted on behalf of the corporation and no evidences of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by a resolution of the Board of Directors. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. No loans shall be made by the corporation to its directors or officers.

Section 3: Checks, Notes, Drafts, Etc. All checks, notes, drafts or other orders for the payment of money of the corporation shall be signed, endorsed or accepted in the name of the corporation by such officer, officers, person or persons as from time to time may be designated by the Board of Directors or by any officer or officers authorized by the Board of Directors to make such designation.

Section 4: Deposits. All funds of the corporation not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Board of directors may designate.

ARTICLE XV
Waiver of Notice

Whenever any notice is required to be given to any Owner or director of the corporation under the provisions of these Bylaws or under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation or under the provisions of the Washington Non-Profit Corporation Act, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE XVI
Indemnification

To the full extent permitted by the Washington Non-Profit Corporation Act, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding (whether brought by or in the right of the Corporation or otherwise) by reason of the fact that said person is or was a director or officer of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees, judgment, fines and amounts paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred by said person in connection with such action, suite or proceeding; and the Board of Directors may, at any time, approve indemnification of any other person which the corporation has the power to indemnify under the Washington Non-Profit Corporation Act.

ARTICLE XVII
Amendments

Section 1: These By-Laws may be amended only with written approval of a majority of the Board of Directors. Any Amendment will be signed by the approving Directors and copies delivered to all members within thirty (30) days of adoption.

Section 2: In the case of any conflict between the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws, the Articles shall control; and in the case of any conflict between the Declaration and these Bylaws, the Declaration shall control; and in the case of any conflict between the Articles of Incorporation and the Declaration, the Declaration shall control.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF we, all being the Directors of Northshore Ridge Homeowners' Association have hereunto set our hands this 28TH day of JUNE, 2018.
